

My family and I are supporters of AIR 1 radio. It is an important part of our day and our kids lives. The music has a positive message and we feel safe playing it around friends, family, and kids of all ages. It would be devastating to us to loose this station if LPFM stations were to over power it. Keeping clean upbeat stations is a good choice, keeping AIR 1 is important to us.